

Job Title: Campus Ministry Intern

Purpose: To meet the spiritual needs of Herd4Christ while preparing for a future in campus ministry.

Job Description: This is a 13 month paid internship beginning the first of August 2009 and lasting through the end of August 2010. Responsibilities include leading a weekly Bible study on the campus of Marshall University, teaching Bible classes, leading a weekly devo (includes planning and organizing all activities), occasional pulpit preaching, regular meetings with the campus ministry team, and completion of a curriculum including readings and assessments designed to further strengthen and enhance qualities necessary for campus ministry.

This internship allows you the opportunity to serve and worship with the 26th Street Church of Christ in Huntington, WV, while working with students on the campus of Marshall University. The 26th Street congregation is under the oversight of two faithful elders, Doug Allan and Bill Wheeler. In addition, we have four deacons and a congregation of about 150 loving members. Our minister Alan Cole has been with us for more than 20 years and is part of our campus ministry team, which also includes Ben Allan and Chris Roberts, who have both been a part of the campus ministry since its inception.

Qualifications: We are looking for a Christian man with a passion for working with college-age Christians as well as leading others to Christ . Candidates must have a strong Bible knowledge and be willing and able to teach/preach the word of God; Must be a team player who works well with others; Must be organized, hard-working and willing to learn; must possess leadership qualities and be able to motivate others while establishing relationships. A college degree is preferred.
