

The Homewood Church of Christ is searching for a Children's Minister

The Homewood Church of Christ is an active, demographically diverse congregation of 650+ members. We are looking for an individual who is filled with the spirit of God and empowered by it to boldly work with the children of this congregation. As we seek to carry God's message to the world, we are looking for a Children's Minister with a servant heart and willingness to effectively share His word with the children of this church and surrounding community, regardless of race, background, and economic status.

The desired high-level characteristics of this individual should be:

- A passion for working with children
- Experience working with children
- A heart for the lost
- A long-term commitment to minister to children
- Creative thinking skills
- A good understanding of children's needs
- A willingness to be transparent
- Strong one-to-one relationship skills
- A team player willing to actively work with our ministry team
- A spiritually mature role model

Our new minister's primary responsibilities will be to be actively involved in the daily lives of our children from birth through the sixth grade and their families. Our parents are very involved and active in supporting the Children's Ministry. We desire an individual who can work with the parents, Bible class teachers, shepherds, and other ministers to equip our children with the hearts and skills to become the families and leaders of tomorrow. These high-level responsibilities will include:

- Lead the ministry efforts for birth – 6th grade
- Ensure appropriate classes on Sunday mornings and Wednesday evenings
- Be actively involved in the lives of our children and their families
- Warm, encouraging personality that connects well with children
- Good recruiter and trainer of others
- Able both to follow and lead
- Sets example and serves as role model in personal life

Formal education is desired, but not required, if the candidate has long-term experience in Children's Ministry. Candidates should have a long-term interest in serving the Homewood Church of Christ in this role. They must be willing to actively serve with the current ministry team of Homewood and invest time in communicating with the eldership, ministry leaders, the congregation, and others in the brotherhood.
