

Established congregation of 900+ in Florence, Alabama is seeking a College and Young Adult (CYA) Minister who can develop a long term, dynamic ministry. He must love and lead our CYA's to spiritual maturity and service. He must be enthusiastic, organized, and committed to establishing individual relationships with our young people. He must demonstrate effective communication skills and work well with our current church staff, the students, and their families.

The Cross Point church has been at their new campus for only three years, and we have excellent facilities. These facilities include two classroom wings, a multi-purpose gym, a benevolence center, and two youth soccer fields.

Those interested in the position should send their resume with references to:
