

CAMPUS MINISTRY INTERN POSITION COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

RAMS FOR CHRIST is a Christian student organization on the Colorado State University campus (~27,000 students). We also reach out to the students at Front Range Community College, to international students and to the college age living in Ft. Collins. We are sponsored by the Meadowlark Church of Christ. Our mission is to glorify God, share Christ and to encourage one another!

We seek to facilitate:

- Spiritual growth and development by providing weekly devotionals, Bible studies, retreats, seminars, mission trips and other spiritual activities for college students.
- Christian fellowship by providing social activities and service projects on a regular basis so that students can find and associate with Christian friends.
- Leadership training by providing opportunities to serve in worship services, service projects, Bible studies and social activities.
- Evangelism on the campus of CSU by implementing outreach programs and encouraging students' efforts to reach out to their peers.
- A church home and a Christian family for those who are college age by our adopt-a-student programs and other ideas to help these young people feel welcomed, integrated and needed.

We are seeking an intern to help in the following areas:

- Leading Individual and Group Bible studies.
- Being a Christian example at all times and places.
- Planning recreational/social events (we are in the Rockies - so there's camping, hiking, skiing and other outdoor opportunities).
- Planning and participating in service projects and mission trips (past trips have included Ukraine and India).
- Getting to know, visiting, counseling and mentoring the young people in our ministry.
- Applying your God given gifts to serve Him in Ft. Collins.
- Assisting the elders, deacons and other staff members as a team player in church wide efforts.

The details of the position are:

- We would like the intern to begin work in early August 2008 and commit to one year's service. A longer term of employment may be negotiable after the first year.
- A minimum of 40 hours / week (or 30 minimum if enrolled in a class)
- Oversight and review will be by the Meadowlark Church of Christ elders

We are looking for a candidate that displays the following qualities:

- Strong Bible knowledge and foundation
- Excellent Christian example and leadership potential
- Commitment to personal Bible study, prayer and purity
- Passion for sharing the gospel of Christ with others, specifically at the university level
- Desire to pursue campus ministry as a career
- A demonstrated passion for campus ministry
- Self motivated to implement new ideas in reaching the lost at CSU
- Experience in state university campus ministry environment
- Outgoing and good communication skills

Please send a cover letter, résumé and letter of reference to

Campus Intern Search Committee
Meadowlark Church of Christ
2810 Meadowlark Ave.
Fort Collins, CO 80526

You may contact Russ Whitten at russ@meadowlarkchurch.org or 970-223-7788 for more information about this position.

Thank you for your interest and God bless you.