

The Georgia Christian Student Center, a non-denominational campus ministry at the University of Georgia and ministry of the Campus View church of Christ, is currently seeking applications to fill a full-time campus minister position. The position requires a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, some formal Bible instruction and training preferred along with meaningful campus ministry experience. Applications should be submitted by November 1, 2009 and should include (1) a cover letter addressed to the Campus View church of Christ Campus Minister Search Committee and (2) a resume including contact information for at least three references. Applicants may send application materials to gcscsearch@gmail.com.

Questions may also be sent to this address and Connie Norwood or Eric Johnson will reply or return your call just as soon as possible.